VitaMeal interrupt the cycle of poverty:

The Poverty Cycle

VitaMeal – Breaking the Poverty Cycle

Gli The objectives of VitaMeal

1. Maximising the impact: the donations go far beyond the simple meal, going to the benefit of many other people. The donation of these meals creates opportunities to improve the lives of others through education, jobs and teaching self-sufficiency.
2. Attracting children to school: VitaMeal donations are generally distributed through school programs because parents living in poverty often send their children to school to enable them to get a free meal, rather than keep them home to work.
3. Ensuring a steady flow of donations: As is configured as a commercial venture capital, Nourish the Children facilitates consistent and increasing donations by offering an incentive to buy, donate and promote VitaMeal.
4. Create economic opportunities: The VitaMeal plants in Malawi and China reduce transportation costs and help local economies.
5. To contribute to self-sufficiency: Part of the proceeds from purchases of VitaMeal is donated to fund agricultural education in the village of Mtalimanja, in Malawi. The increase in agricultural production could someday alleviate the food needs in Malawi.
